SETTING THE STAGE FOR A HOT & EXCITING YEAR

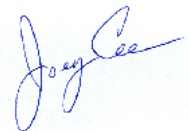

Live theatre is a great getaway and a sure alternative to taking in a movie. The difference is that you have actors who are taking you on a journey in real time - live and in person. The audience reaction somehow draws you into a communal experience that is shared and felt. When we watch live theatre on stage, we can feel ourselves, we can see ourselves - many of us go through a life changing experience. The power of stage is enormous - because it is real and not fake as in the movies. Although the big productions are surviving through all this turmoil, community theatre is having a much tougher time to stage their productions. In most cases this is live theatre at its best and it needs to be supported. This is where you will usually find some real gems that may later make their way to Broadway.

In this edition of our digital magazine CURTAINS UP, we have compiled and condensed listing of live theatre productions including dinner theatre, dance, comedy, drama, theatre for kids and family, opera, theatre festivals and of course musicals. You will find that many of these productions are very affordable. Some are (PWYC) Pay What You Can.

There is definitely no shortage of productions as you can see in this issue. Throughout the year, this edition will be updated and is available as a free download. Regular listing updates and additions can be found at any time by going to our website and clicking on the Curtains Up button in the instant links section.

I highly recommend that you pass on this PDF format publication to your friends and associates and also let them know that they can visit our website at www.HOToronto.com and download this and our other publications for FREE.

Theatre is like a mirror where we can see ourselves, but we need to muster up the courage to face it and to enjoy it whole heartedly. A theatre goer experiences the way life is enacted live in front of them. It's about listening to and experiencing the stories of ourselves.

This is a story beyond race and ethnicity. It's about universal hopes and dreams.

IN THE HEIGHTS takes the audience to a hip Latino neighbourhood in the Washington Heights section of New York City where the stories, hopes and dreams cut across race and ethnicity and are universally familiar.

Winner of four 2008 Tony Awards. Best Musical, Best Music and Lyrics, Best Choreography and Best Orchestrations, as well as the 2008 Grammy Award for Best Musical Show Album.

February 9 - April 20, 2012
@ Stage West Dinner Theatre

You won't find an Elvis impersonator anywhere in this highly charged song and dance show. Inspired by and featuring 24 Elvis Presley hits, this musical adapted from the book by Joe Dipietro bursts at the seams with great renditions and arrangements of some of Elvis' best known hit songs. Taking me by surprise was the full ensemble rendition of "Can't Help Falling In Love" at the end of the first half. The song selections intertwined beautifully with the story line. Great cast!

In just 70 madcap minutes, without intermission, the entire Harry Potter saga goes to pot in a brilliantly conceived and performed parody by creators and actors Daniel Clarkson and Jefferson Turner. The play takes on the ultimate challenge of condensing all seven Harry Potter books. Don't expect any lavish set designs, music, props or effects. It's a magical piece all on its own. Anyone for Quidditch? Be prepared to interact.
